

nothing and consciousness

how long we were nothing or were we
how short we are something or are we
once makes little sense but if only once
greeting the world
what ardour
can you imagine so short a time and losing a third?
among all those faces
the billions
a sort of relief
except for the very small circle better in a month
almost relieved at ones going